

Untethered to Provide You with a No-Strings-Attached Travel Experience

Untethered removes the hassle of getting your luggage to the airport using a simple, convenient app that lightens the stress load while traveling.

SEATTLE, WA--8 December, 2015--We've all been there: hotel checkout is at 11am, but your flight isn't until 8pm. You want to spend your last day in the city exploring, but your luggage is holding you back. Untethered will pick up your luggage and carry-ons from your current location and deliver it at the airport in time for you to check-in. In the meantime your bags will be stored in a safe and secure location and handled only by TSA-certified agents. Using a mobile app, travelers can arrange for their baggage to be picked up from a set location on the day of their departure. The user will be notified about how soon a driver will reach their location. Travelers must be present for the pickup, but once the baggage has been loaded, the traveler will receive a confirmation number and have the ability to view the status of their luggage through the app. Within three hours of boarding time (four hours for international flights), the luggage will be waiting at a kiosk in the terminal. They receive their bags and then proceed to check-in.

"Forget making the trip across town to grab your stuff at the hotel," said Ruiyi Zhou, one of Untethered's executives, "Customers love spending that extra hour, or two, or five, exploring the city. We make it safe and convenient to make the most of your day, whether you're in Seattle, Los Angeles, New York, or San Francisco. Untethered is here to take the weight off your shoulders."

Julie, age 47, was one of our beta testers. "Before Untethered I can't tell you how many times I wasted the last day of my vacation sitting in the hotel lobby because I couldn't lug my bags around," she says. "Now, I simply schedule a pickup in the Untethered app, they come get my bags, and I get to spend the rest of the day on the beach."

To try out the Untethered experience, look for the app on the App Store and the Google Play Store beginning February 1. Our inaugural service will include Seattle, Los Angeles, San Francisco, and New York, with additional locations coming in early 2017.
